NEW MEMBER APPOINTED AT THE INDUSTRIAL COURT – HIS HONOUR MR. MORTON MITCHELL

Port-of-Spain: On Wednesday 29th October, 2014, His Honour Mr. Morton Mitchell received his instrument of appointment as a Member of the Industrial Court from the President of the Court, Her Honour Mrs. Deborah Thomas- Felix.

His Honour Mr. Morton Mitchell is the holder of a Master of Science degree in Organisation Development and Knowledge Management from the George Mason University School of Public Policy, and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Labour Studies from the National Labour College in Silver Springs Maryland. He is also a Certified Safety Training Specialist with the National Association of Safety Professionals.

Mr. Mitchell brings to the Court over fifteen (15) years of experience in the fields of occupational safety and health and industrial relations. Prior to joining the Industrial Court, he worked at the Ministry of Labour and Small and Micro Enterprise Development where he served as the Chief Labour Inspector Specialist. He is a former Director of the Occupational Safety and Health Authority and a former Director of the Board of CEPEP Company Limited.

During the period 1998 to 2008, the newly appointed Member was actively involved in the labour movement where he served as Treasurer and later, as General Secretary of the Federation of Independent Trade Unions and NGO's (FITUN). He also served as the General Secretary of the Trinidad and Tobago Fire Service Association (Second Division).

The Industrial Court welcomes His Honour Mr. Morton Mitchell who will preside as a Judge in the General Services Division of the Court.
