PRESIDENT OF THE INDUSTRIAL COURT TO CHAIR AT HIGH-LEVEL SEMINAR ON INTERNATIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNALS

Port-of-Spain: Her Honour Mrs. Deborah Thomas-Felix, President of the Industrial Court of Trinidad and Tobago, who is also President of the United Nations Appeals Tribunal, will be out of the jurisdiction to be a Chair at the First High-Level Seminar on International Administrative Tribunals: An in depth discussion on institutional and jurisprudence issues of the European Public Law Organization (EPLO). This high-level seminar will take place from Thursday 14th September to Friday 15th September, 2017 at the EPLO's premises of Sounion, Attica, Greece.

As President of the United Nations Appeals Tribunal, Her Honour Mrs. Thomas Felix will chair a session on institutional issues. Among the many issues to be addressed are alternate dispute resolution - informal resolution (settlement) and mediation, caseload, representation/legal assistance before tribunals, electronic filing and possibility of revision of judgments /appeals. Participants include judges and registry staff of the international administrative tribunals or equivalent bodies.

The EPLO, which was established in 2007, is an international organization dedicated to the creation and dissemination of knowledge in the area of Public Law and Governance, including but not limited to, inter alia, national, comparative and European public law, human rights law and environmental law.
